BRIAN K. STOCK
CEO
Stock Development

With almost 30 years of experience in real estate development, construction, sales, and marketing, Brian K. Stock learned the business from the bottom-up working in the family-owned Stock Development, growing it with his father, K.C. Stock. The company has built more than 5,000 homes in Southwest Florida, is currently building in 13 communities, and has been named “Builder of the Year” four years. Stock Development and its employees are active in numerous local charities and associations.

DAVID WALLACE
Senior Vice President
CRE Consultants

When David Wallace was a 24-year-old U.S. Army signal officer, he was assigned responsibility for all communications, including peace talks between North and South Korea in 1971. Tough negotiations prepared him for later accomplishments, like being the lead agent on the sale of the legendary Kodak Elmgrove Park campus in New York. He realized that commercial real estate expanded his opportunities to “be a part of the solution.” He has worked with Fortune 100 companies and has been a top producer at CRE Consultants since joining in 2012.
